Cauvery College for Women (Autonomous) celebrated Triple Fiesta, a conglomeration of three religious festivals with pomp and grandeur on 23rd December, 2021, with a tang of unity arrayed in a spectrum of diverse cultures through Live YouTube Streaming. The College stands unique and peerless in commemorating Christmas with carols ringing in the air, observing Ramzan with truths and values and Pongal as a Thanksgiving Harvest festival.

The Principal of the college Dr. Mrs. V. Sujatha rendered the welcome address and thereby urged the students to evolve a feeling of oneness and togetherness in the campus.

The three Chief Guests for the Triple Fiesta Rev. Bro. Dr. M. Irudhayam, Dr. U. Alibava and Dr. G. Uppili Srinivsan were given a warm reception and honoured by the members of the College Governing Council – President, Mr. G. Muthukrishnan, Secretary – Mr. K. Thiruneelakandan and Treasurer - Mr. S. Chandrasekharan.

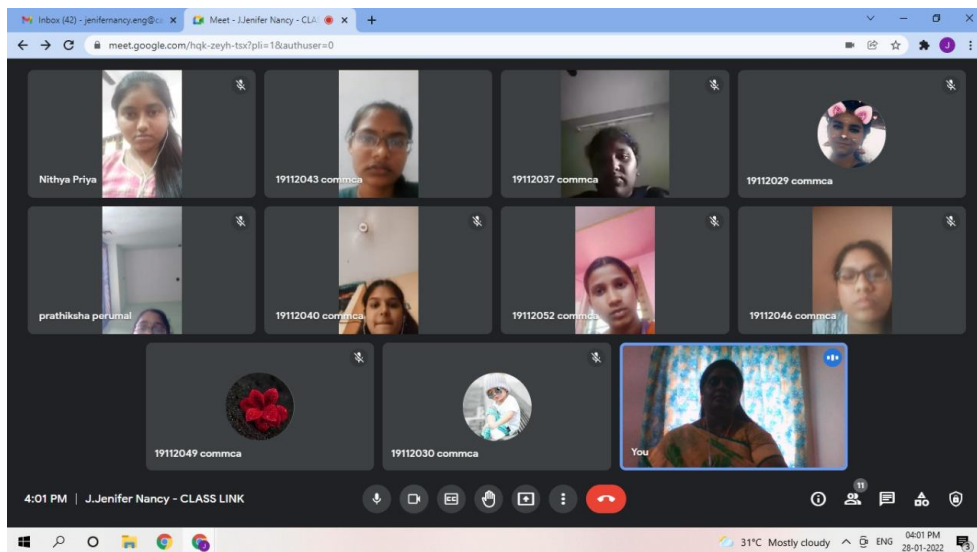

The singing of Carols by the choristers of the Department of English marked a season of joy and Christmas cheers followed with Bible reading by Ms. S. Koushika of III BA English. The Chief Guest Rev. Bro. Dr. M. Irudhayam, Provincial Supervisor, Monfort Brothers of St. Gabriel and Member of Tamilnadu State Minority Commission delivered the Christmas message signifying the coming of Christ's purpose on earth and to show compassion and foster love to the broken and depressed hearts.

The symbolism of Ramzan and Bakrid song was sung melodiously in praise of Allah, followed with Quran reading by Ms. A. Dafina Roy of III BA English. The Chief Guest Dr. U. Alibava, Professor & Head, Chair School of Indian and Other Languages from Bharathidasan University, rendered Ramzan and Bakrid message with a touch of humanitarian concern, charity and brotherhood of man.

The Pongal festival represented thanksgiving by the farmers and the harvest season was welcomed by the choir and sang a mellifluous folk melody invoking the sweetness of Pongal ambience. The reading from the Bhagavad Gita was read by Ms. S. Femina Begum of III BA English. The Chief Guest Dr. G. Uppili Srinivsan, Exam Wing, SASTRA Deemed University, Tanjore related the blessings of God to man and cattle during the harvest thereby displaying gratitude to nature and commence the New Year with renewed spirit.

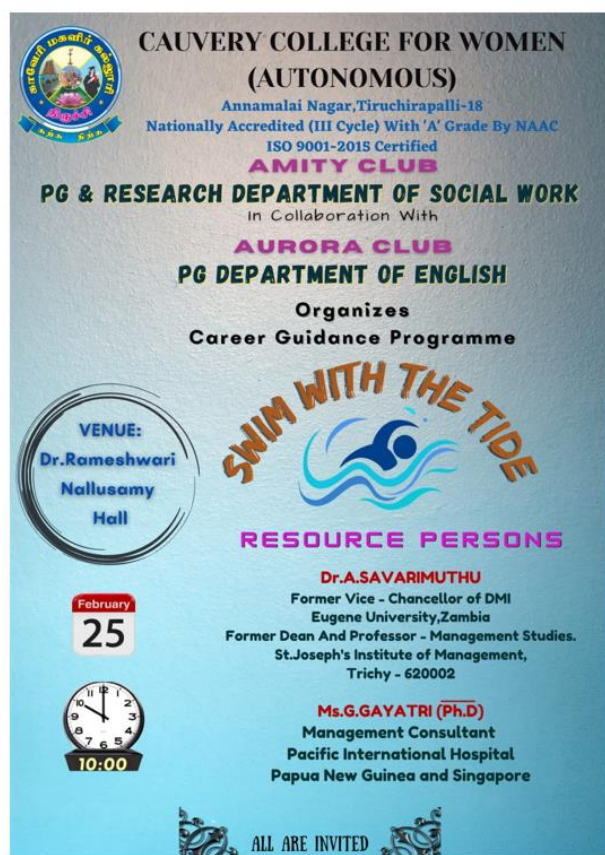

The programme came to an end with a note of gratitude presented by Dr. S. Jayashree Agarwal, Assistant Professor & UG, Head Department of English for the success of Triple Fiesta by bringing forth the holiday season's joy and instilled the spirit of love and festivity.

The Fiesta concluded with the jubilant arrival of the Santa Claus jingling to the tune of Jingle Bells having heralded cheers, laughter, smiles, gifts, scattered candies and balloons in the air.
