Report

On September 8, 2023, Students' Exnora of Cauvery College for Women (Autonomous) organized an Eco-Friendly Products Exhibition for undergraduate students. Dr. V. Sujatha, Principal of Cauvery College for Women (Autonomous), appreciated the students for their innovative efforts. Ten departments actively participated and exhibited their products. Students came out with innovative ideas and used only Eco-friendly products. The initiative aims to reduce plastic usage. In our current sustainable green economy, eco-friendly products play a pivotal role. Encouraging lower consumption of such products is a collective responsibility. This not only safeguards our environment but also preserves our precious water resources.
